New York, December 11. The government's estimate of the corton crop, placing the scason's yield at 16,55,600 base of 500 pounds pross, exclusive of inters, appeared to very nearly in line with expectations in the local market, and while trading was extremely active both before and after the publication of the report, there was no very important change in prices. The closs was ateady, but at a net decline of 7911 points, and as practically the lowest level of the day, Immediately following the government figures, which were published promptly at 2 o'clock, the market railed 16912 points from the lowest on covering and buying by toreign houses but the demand was readily supplied on the advance, and the market later turned easier again with January cot-COTTON MARKETS.

New Orleans, La., December at.—Cotton futures opened steady and unchanged to 5 points off compared with Saturday's close. The close was steady at a net decline of 739 il points. Cables were not quite up to expectations, but considerable rain in the cotton country caused scalpers to think twice about seiling short, immediately after the cail prices of the trading months were 1%2 points down. Both sides were waiting on the government's estimate of the crop, and traders of all classes were unwilling to increase their commitments prior to it. At the lowest prices were 2200 to point under. Spot catton easy, 1-16c. off; middling, 94c. Spites on the spot 500 bales and 1,700 to arrive. Futures closed steady. Sentence Will Go Into Effect on January 15-Charters by State.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., December 11.—On as-surances by reputable counsel that they have meritorious grounds for an application for pardon, but have not had time to prepare and put their case had time to prepare and but their case before the pending sentence must go into effect. Governor Kitchin has granted a reprieve for A. M. Gouge, the Mitchell county former deputy sheriff, on twenty months' sentence for tampering with the county tax books. by changing the totals of county taxes by changing the totals of county take, so that the county would be defrauded out of about $4,000 taxes in the settle-ment with the sheriff. This is the out of about $4,000 taxes in the settlement with the sheriff. This is the case in which the Supreme Court recently affirmed the conviction and sentence by the lower court.

The reprieve is to January 15, his hond to be the same that he has been under pending the appeal.

The Corporation Commission issued an order to-day for the construction of two sidetracks in the southern section of Wilmington for The Carolina Metal Products Company and for Theodore D. Emple. The order carries with it the crossing of a number of streets, subject to approval by the Wilmington Aldermen. Representations to the commission were that there is no opposition to the proposed skilings, the producement of the orders being in compilance with statutory requirements. There was a charter issued to-day for the Arapahoe-Bairch Creek Tramway Company, Pamilico country; capital, $15,000 authorized and $4,000 subscribed, by H. A. Reel and others. There was filed to-day the dissolution certificates for The Auditorium Amusement Company, Charlotte, of which M. B. Hunter, H. P. Hunter and others were the incorporators.
